

FROM MID-PACIFIC.

Mr. E. W. Barrett Writes of Social and Political Affairs at Honolulu.

PARTISAN FEELING IS ON THE WANE

Sentiment in Favor of Annexation Grows Stronger Daily.

SOCIAL LIFE IS NOT VERY RAY

Under the Monarchy Liberal Sams Were Spent in Entertaining—The Correspondent Has a Rough Voyage.

Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, April 3.—(Staff Correspondence.)—Though I have been on the Pacific for seven days, tossed and buffeted about by high winds and heavy swells, which has kept me in an inwardly turbulent state to which no pain is comparable, there yet remains 3,000 miles of ocean to traverse before the China will reach Yokohama, and that will take eleven more days.

The trip across the Pacific has not been that lovely one which it has been painted. On the Atlantic you may be tossed about at random, but there is a variability about it which lends novelty to the experience. The motion is up and down and sideways and all other sorts of ways. But for days and the ocean is in a great swell which keeps the ship rocking from side to side in a monotonous roll for days and days. It is like being in a swing which swings on and on forever, until you feel that you would give your all for just one moment of stop. It brings out all that is bad in your system as well as all the bad words in your vocabulary.

The ship China is, however, a vessel fully equaling the Atlantic liners, except not quite so speedy. The cuisine is excellent and the officers are a jolly good set, who seek to make the long journey pleasant to the passengers.

Besides the cabin passengers the officers are the only white men aboard. The crew, the cooks, the stewards and all the steerage passengers are Japs and Chinese, whose English vocabulary is at the lowest ebb. They are, however, experts at the business, patient and silent, keeping the ship as neat as a new pin. As waiters and cooks they are superior, being quick, neat and noiseless in their movements. Once told to do a thing they repeat it every day thereafter at the same hour and in the same manner.

Fan Tan in the Stateroom.
Besides the forty cabin passengers, some on pleasure tours, others going to Japan and China to buy tea, there are several hundred Chinese and Japanese in the steerage. Among them are a dozen or more women and children. The men spend their days in gambling on the lower deck, playing their peculiar and apparently incomprehensible games with queer sorts of dominoes, dice and numbered tin chips.

The view as you steam into the harbor of Honolulu is magnificent—its mountains, extinct volcanoes and lowlands, jeweled with all the tropical fruits and flowers. As you steam into the harbor of Honolulu schools of water boys swim out to the vessel, and dive for small coins thrown to them by the passengers. They do not attempt to catch the money, but dive after it and catch it far down in the water as it sinks. They are as thoroughly at home as a fish, and however far out you may throw a coin they will dive for it and never miss securing one.

Honolulu is spread out over several square miles of flat sloping land, between the mountains and the sea. The city and its surroundings form an ideal paradise. Nature has made it so and the hands of man has added to its loveliness.

It has a population of about 20,000. They are natives, Americans, Germans, English, Chinese and Japanese and a jumbled class of mixed blood humanity. Among the natives the mixed ones are the dominant ones.

At the Admiral's Reception.
Last evening there was a reception aboard the United States warship Philadelphia, given by Admiral Beardslee to Minister and Mrs. Willis. The vessel was exquisitely decorated with flags, palms and flowers. The band played from the bridge and the young people danced on deck. The array of feminine beauty was delectably varied, charming in its jewelry and panoramic effect.

A young officer gave me the history and nationality of each as they passed in the dance, and then presented me to each in turn.

"That pretty girl over there," he would say, "is from California. That is an English girl and the one by her side is a German."

"She is a half native," pointing to a light-skinned complexioned beauty with long black eye lashes, dark brown eyes and a full set of teeth that flashed like pure pearls as she chatted. "Her father is an American, her mother a native. There's another. And this one is the daughter of a wealthy Chinaman. Her mother is a native. There is a niece of the queen. The other one is a daughter of one of the new government officials."

The Two Factions Mix.
"Royalists and republicans are jumbled together here tonight and really the intense feeling is beginning to wane. The people are getting together and good humor is prevailing."

"Socially," he went on, "life here is not as gay as it was during the monarchy. The royal family spent money lavishly and entertained in truly royal style. It is not so now, but then Honolulu is a charming place, socially and in every way."

As a matter of fact the feeling has tempered down. The new government is in excellent form now and the people are wildly clamorous for annexation to the United States. The queen is still a prisoner in the palace and the inciters of the recent attempted rebellion have all been sentenced and fined. But President Dole and his advisers and counselors are disposed to bring all the people together in friendly relations and the chances are that in due time the offenders will be pardoned, including the queen herself.

OLNEY ON A REHEARING.

Some Vital Points Which Should Be Settled by the Court.

Washington, April 17.—Attorney General Olney this afternoon filed in the supreme court of the United States a brief upon the petition for a rehearing of the income tax cases. It was not expected at the department of justice at the court that the government would respond to the notice by Mr. Guthrie of the intention of counsel to ask a rehearing and to the court some supplies were expressed at the appearance of the document.

The attorney general's brief was as follows:

"The United States respectfully represents that if a rehearing is granted it should cover all the legal and constitutional questions involved, and not merely those on which the court are equally divided."

"1. Whether a tax on incomes generally, inclusive of rents and interest or dividends from investments of all kinds, is or is not a direct tax within the meaning of the federal constitution, is a matter upon which, as on the original question, the government has really never been heard."

"Its position at the argument was that the question had been settled by an exposition of the constitution practically contemporaneous with its adoption; by a subsequent unbroken line of judicial precedents, by the concurring and repeated action of all the departments of the government, and by the consent of all the writers and authorities by whom the subject has heretofore been considered."

"2. The importance to the government of the new views of its taxing power, announced in the opinion of the chief justice, can hardly be exaggerated."

"First. Pushed to their logical conclusion, they practically exclude from the direct operation of the act all the real estate of the country, and all its invested personal property. They exclude it because it is realty and personality, and if they are taxable only by the consent of the state, then the inevitable inequalities resulting from such a plan of taxation are so gross and flagrant as to absolutely debar any resort to it."

"That such inequalities must result is practically admitted, the only suggestion in reply being that the power to directly tax realty and personality was not meant for use as an ordinary everyday power, but that the United States was expected to rely for its customary revenues upon duties, imports and excises, and that it now meant to impose direct taxes only in extraordinary emergencies and as a sort of dernier resort."

"It is submitted that a construction of the constitution of such vital importance to itself and requiring in its support an imputation to its framers of a specific purpose, which nothing in the text of the constitution has any tendency to reveal, cannot be too carefully considered before being finally adopted."

"Second. Though of minor importance it is certainly relevant to point out that if the new construction of the constitution referred to is to prevail, the United States has, under previous income tax laws, collected vast sums of money which, on every principle of justice, it ought to refund, and which it must be assumed that congress will deem itself bound to make provision for refunding by appropriate legislation."

CANADIAN ELECTIONS.

The Government Strengthened in Its Dealings with Manitoba.

Toronto, Ont., April 17.—The elections for members of the house of commons were held in four constituencies today and resulted in a victory for the government.

Quebec, West-Dobell, independent conservative, elected by 6 majority.

Antigonish, N. S.—McIntosh, liberal, elected by 11 majority, 4 liberal gain.

Halifax, N. S.—Hon. W. H. Montague, secretary of state, re-elected by 612 majority.

Quebec, Que.—Geoffre, liberal, elected by 157 majority.

The result showed that apparently the voters took little interest in this issue and on old lines, the constituency being uniformly liberal by about today's majority.

The result of the elections in the four constituencies is that the government loses one seat and the liberals gain one.

To Report the Gray Ruling Bill.

Albany, N. Y., April 17.—The senate judiciary committee today reported favorably the Gray ruling bill without amendment. They will also report the Wilds bill which makes operative the sections of the constitution prohibiting gambling, and a supplemental bill to the Gray ruling bill imposing the 5 per cent tax on the gross receipts instead of the gross earnings of the tracks.

The committee will also report the New York police magistrate bill, which abolishes the New York city police justices with the sections relative to commitment of children stricken out. It is to be recommended.

Still No Result.

Dover, Del., April 17.—Another break in the senatorial contest occurred today, but Addicks men remained firm, and there was no election. Markey men, with the exception of John W. Addicks, returned to the Pennewell; the speaker returned to Higgins. Two ballots were taken, each resulting: Higgins, republican; 3; Addicks, republican; 2; Pennewell, republican; 1; Higgins, democrat; 3; Bayard, democrat; 1; absent, 2.

A Business Motto.

DeFuniak Springs, Fla., April 17.—(Special.)—A board of trade with the following leading business men as officers was organized here today: E. B. DeFuniak, president; W. W. Storr, vice president; W. Storr, secretary. They adopted as their motto: "More Business, Less Politics." The organization will push DeFuniak to the front.

The Insurance Bill Defeated.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 17.—In the senate today the bill to abolish the three-fourths clause in fire insurance policies and force companies to pay the full amount of the risk was defeated.

They Won't Talk.

Ottawa, Ont., April 17.—The Newfoundland delegates left for home this morning. They will sail for Halifax tomorrow night. No information will be given out concerning the conference until such time as the delegates have reported to their government.

Burning of the National Saw Works.

Cincinnati, O., April 17.—The burning of the National saw works last night entailed a loss of from $25,000 to $50,000. Insurance was $54,225 in thirty-six companies.

SILVER IN THE WEST

Five Governors Testify on the Feeling in Their States.

THE PEOPLE ARE NOT FOOLED

They Are on to President Cleveland and Distrust His Talk

EVEN REPUBLICANS ARE SILVERITES

Missouri, Wyoming, Nebraska, Montana and Colorado Are All Strong for the Money of the People.

St. Louis, Mo., April 17.—The Evening Chronicle today received five telegraphic replies from governors of five western states in answer to the following question: Do the people of your state endorse Cleveland's financial views?

Governor Stone, of Missouri, said Cleveland was merely filling old saws and that men who think are not fooled by the words as "sound money" and "patronism." Missouri and the west were for free silver.

Governor Richards, of Wyoming: "I answer unhesitatingly they do not. In the last state election the people of Wyoming declared unequivocally for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. Nothing has caused them to recede from that financial position. On the contrary I believe they are now more firmly in favor of it than ever before, and this position holds good irrespective of party."

Nebraska.
Governor Holcomb, of Nebraska: "The great majority of Nebraskans, regardless of party affiliations, are in favor of free and unlimited coinage of silver and opposed to the Wall street view of President Cleveland. The allotments of patronage have been insufficient to hold more than a handful of Nebraska democrats in line with the administration. The populists are a unit for free silver and the leaders of the republican party find it advantageous to steer clear of free coinage breakers on account of a growing sentiment among the rank and file of their party in favor of the white metal. Without doubt Nebraska can be classed as a free silver state and opposed to the president's financial policy."

Montana.
Governor Rickard, of Montana: "The people of Montana of all political parties repudiate Cleveland's financial views and criticize the attempt of the president to assume the leadership of a financial policy that has seriously crippled the party interests in all sections of the country. It is understood that Cleveland is merely echoing the views of those whose personal interests are conserved by the single standard."

Colorado.
Governor McIntyre, of Colorado: "Colorado's people believe in sound money as thoroughly as any one else believes that of gold alone there is not sufficient to supply and adequate exchange; that this is established by two main factors—first, that before the demonetization of silver there was not too much sound money, and second, that the demonetization of silver since that time the necessity for such money has not decreased; second, that the constant lowering of prices establishes the correctness of the gold standard. To the extent that money is inefficient there is an approach to barter with its inconvenience and factions and result of restrictions of exchange and lowering of prices. Money does not relieve the situation because finally there is no money but that of ultimate redemption, which alone measures the value of money. ## AN ABLE ANSWER

To President Cleveland's Letter on the Financial Situation.

SHOWING WHERE IT MISLEADS

Confession is Certain if the People Are Not Allowed to Pay Their Debts Under Conditions That Are Favorable.

Chicago, April 17.—W. H. Harvey, chairman of the executive committee of the Bimetall League, which has headquarters in Chicago and the author of "Coin's Financial School," prepared the following reply to President Cleveland's letter to the Chicago committee of business men:

"Chicago, April 15.—To His Excellency, Grover Cleveland, President, Washington, D. C. Sir—In reply to your letter addressed to a committee of business men of Chicago we wish to say that the committee that have paid the president's letter attached their names to the petition signed by a majority of the business men and citizens of this city, who are deeply interested in the welfare of this republic. They represented that class that owns money and securities payable in money, with fixed incomes.

Where the President Errs.

"We respectfully submit that your letter does not present the true merits of this controversy. You call the attention of farmers and wage earners to the fact that raising prices, while enabling them to sell their products and labor at a higher price, will also cause them to pay equally more for what they may purchase, but you neglect to say that your statement is not applicable to the business men and citizens of this city, who are deeply interested in the welfare of this republic. They represented that class that owns money and securities payable in money, with fixed incomes.

Some Striking Illustrations.

A debt for $100 that 1,000 bushels of wheat would have paid in 1880, now compels the farmer to give up 2,000 bushels of wheat for the same $100, which he must then sell at a price that will not pay him for his expenses. The result is that the farmer is left with a loss of $100, and the creditor is left with a profit of $100.

Confiscation of the Property of the People by the Sale of Property Under Mortgages, Judgments and Executions.

It means that fixed incomes will wipe out the interest of the people in their property, and that the property of the people will be sold for less than its value.

It means that fixed incomes will wipe out the interest of the people in their property, and that the property of the people will be sold for less than its value.

Free and Fair Competition.

"We want to say further to him that rising prices cause money to seek investment, and would thus open up the channels of commerce and trade and give employment to millions now idle. It is not more money that we want to borrow, but to pay off what we already owe. If we borrow the more we must pay, and the annual interest on all our public and private debts is now more than the annual profits of business and production. Where will it end?

Our forefathers fled from Europe and established a government here that they might be free from the oppression of those nations where the masses are hewers of wood and drawers of water for the rich and the few. It is the duty of those nations to give us the same freedom and the same justice that we justly deserve.

Pernicious Class Legislation.

that the monarchies of Europe have ever fastened upon us. By adopting their policy we have increased the demand for gold and silver, and have thereby increased the value of our money.

"We have added them in the adoption of a single metal for primary money that they can control and corner; that they have cornered and forced us to pay for their own money at a price that is higher than the value of the money itself.

Selfish Interests Predominate.

to promote selfish interests when one class does the thinking for all. Broad views to justly promote the common good cannot be secured by a census of the views of all the people.

"I WOULD RATHER DIE!"

On the third floor of an ordinary lodging house in the City of Brooklyn was found the body of a lodger, with a revolver by his side and a bullet in his head. In his pocket was found a book in which was written:

"I am tired of life because I am suffering from consumption. I would try to work but it is useless. I have no hope, no future, no future. I would rather die than live like this."

What a commentary on our boasted civilization! A poor wretch, suffering from what he supposed was an incurable disease, snuffs out his flickering life with a bullet. Where did he get the idea that his life was incurable? From an old-time theory which modern investigation has exploded. Many diseases may be considered incurable, but that does not make them so. During the past few years scientists have discovered, in the tuberculous germs, the cause of consumption. Their investigations have found a cure for the malady, in Ozone and Guaiac. These agents destroy the germs which produce the disease. Compounded with pure Cod Liver Oil, they form Ozoneol, which is sold by all druggists. This remedy cures consumption and all lung troubles. It first destroys the cause of disease—the poisonous germs which produce it—and then restores the patient to perfect health. The Ozone and Guaiac kill the germs. The Cod Liver Oil provides the flesh and strength. This is the principle on which this medicine works. It is both rational and reasonable, and it is doing more for the cure of consumption than any other preparation.

sequent acts, together with the act of 1873 that reversed the former policy and gave subsequent thereto, as well as all statistical and other information of an equal nature that bears thereon.

"We but express your own opinion as president of the people when we say that all the people should have the opportunity to investigate and intelligently pass upon this question. Respectfully,

"W. H. HARVEY,
Chairman Bimetall Ex. Com."
Mr. Blaine's Views.

Lebanon, Mo., April 17.—Hon. R. F. Blaine was shown the salient feature of the president's letter, and said, after perusing it carefully: "Mr. Cleveland, unfortunately for himself, his party and his country, from the beginning of his administration drew the line sharply between the friends of bimetallism and gold monometallism; in doing so he has forced upon the country a state of affairs that is intolerable to the masses of our people."

"Gold monometallism is a stench in the nostrils of the plain people. The gold standard may do for the bondholders and the bankers, but the sufferings of the industrial masses consequent from the demonization of the money market have not been endured longer without a struggle, the like of which this country has not seen since the late civil war."

"Mr. Cleveland must remember that this crystallization and combination of the gold standard sentiment and methods has brought disaster to the people of a higher standard countries and this policy is now ruining this country. It is the state of things that has made his administration hateful to the masses of the American people."

"Mr. Cleveland's insinuations that the advocates of silver restoration are bent on wicked and unpatriotic and un-American acts to prevent them from seeing and knowing the utter poverty and distress that is prevailing among the masses of the people, but that they who live in the midst of this distress will see daily that the people are suffering and will repel with scorn such insinuations."

BAD FOR DURANT.

The Evidence Before the Coroner's Jury Is Against Him.

A TRAIL OF BLOOD IS DISCOVERED

It Leads from the Church in the Direction of the House Where the Medical Student Lived.

San Francisco, Cal., April 17.—At the coroner's inquest today, in the case of Minnie Williams, with whose murder Theodore Durant is charged, A. E. Williams, father of the girl, testified that she had been keeping company with Durant for some time. He identified his daughter's purse found in Durant's overcoat pocket, stating that he had given it to her last Christmas.

Miss Miriam Lord, Miss Lilla Berry and Miss Stevens testified to finding the body of the murdered girl, Police Sergeant Bullock told of the search for bloody clothing the morning after the murder at Durant's house.

The matter was referred to Architect Kemper. The only way this could be done, according to the law, was by declaring an emergency. To determine whether there is sufficient basis to warrant such a declaration, Mr. Kemper came to the city hall this morning.

Mr. Kemper went out to the grounds yesterday and took a look at the prospect. He returned yesterday afternoon with a trail of blood in his overcoat pocket.

THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW

Architect Kemper Comes to Atlanta To See If It Can Be Dispensed With.

HE WILL NOT DECLARE AN EMERGENCY

Mr. Fernow Goes to Okefenokee Swamp on an Investigating Tour—New York May Make an Appropriation.

The mission of Mr. Charles G. Kemper, the government architect, in Atlanta is of peculiar interest.

Mr. Kemper is one of the most prominent architects in the United States. He stands among the first architects in the employ of the government, and has a fine standing among the architects of the country.

Mr. A. C. Bruce, the well-known architect of this city, has charge of the active work on the government building, and Mr. Kemper's visit has no connection with the details of the construction of the building.

A few years ago congress enacted a law making eight hours a day's work, and provided that the government should not employ more than eight hours a day.

In this respect, the force of hands employed on the government building on the exposition grounds is in violation of the law.

A force of about seventy-five men is employed on the government building, and it has been feared that the building could not be completed in time for the exposition.

at the Charleston hotel with Commissioner Roche, at 9 o'clock. At this meeting the whole question of South Carolina's exhibit in Atlanta will be fully discussed and decided upon. Commissioner E. L. Roche has already done a great deal of preliminary work in the state. He estimates that $10,000 will be needed to make a proper exhibit and as the state has made no appropriation for the purpose, the amount will have to be collected from private subscriptions. This will require an assessment of $300 from each county. There will be trouble in raising the amount. This does not include, however, the special exhibit to be made by the business men of Charleston.

RAISING FUNDS AT WAYCROSS.

An Operative Performance Given—The Proceeds Go to an Exhibit.

Waycross, Ga., April 17.—(Special)—The opera house was thronged tonight by an appreciative audience, and the home talent achieved remarkable success in giving the beautiful cantata "Queen Esther." The characters were appropriately dressed in Jewish and Persian costumes. Nearly one hundred persons, ladies, gentlemen and children, were in the production.

W. W. Sharpe, as King Ahasuerus, acted his part well, and Miss Jennie Covington, as Queen Esther, made a queenly appearance. Colonel W. M. Toomer, as Mordechai, was true to his character. The children's choruses, by fifty boys and girls, in lovely costumes, were beautifully rendered. The play was pronounced by every one to be the best ever given here by home talent or any talent. The proceeds are for the Waycross exhibit at the Atlanta exposition.

"Queen Esther" will be reproduced tomorrow night by request, and the proceeds will be for the exposition.

Montgomery Will Raise It.

Montgomery, Ala., April 17.—(Special)—A meeting was held this afternoon at the Commercial Club rooms to take steps toward collecting the $10,000 which was assessed against Montgomery by the state convention of clubs to provide an Alabama exhibit for the Atlanta exposition. The club members pledged Montgomery's co-operation and authorized President Houghton to appoint a committee to solicit the subscriptions necessary.

THE FREUNDSCHAFTSBLIND Will Give Their First Calico Ball Next Wednesday Night.

Next Wednesday night, April 24th, at 8:45 o'clock, the Freundschaftsblind will open the post-Lenten season by giving a grand "calico" ball at their hall, 632 East Third street.

The ball will be very unique. Every lady is required to wear a calico dress, and a sample of their dress is to be left in an envelope with one of the committee members at the entrance to the ballroom. Every gentleman that dances will receive one of the envelopes on his entrance to the hall and will be required to dance the lady whose dress corresponds with the sample in his envelope.

The hall of the association has been completely re-erected and will be decorated for the occasion. The committee of arrangements have been working untiringly to make the ball a grand success, and will be prepared to make it the most successful that the association have ever given.

The committee of arrangements is composed of the following well-known members of the association: Messrs. Fred Schranck, Paul Hentchell, Philip Maier, John Thomas, John Goetz and Charles Steigitz. Invitations can be had from the above named gentlemen.

CAUGHT THE KINDLING.

A Baker Tried to Dry His Wood, but It Caught Fire.

The proprietor of the City City bakery, on Peachtree street, before he went home last night placed a lot of wood in his furnace to dry. It had been exposed to the rain the day before and was in no condition to cook bread with. He had presence of mind enough to turn the damp kindling into a pile of kindling.

This morning at 1:30 o'clock Sergeant Brenning and Patrolman Lyman were walking down by the place and were startled by a cloud of smoke coming from the basement. They immediately turned in the alarm. The whole department was called out to discover that the wood instead of drying had caught fire. As it was, it could have done no damage. C. Joiner was very indignant as it is the second time the department has been called out for a similar offense.

CHOPPED HIS TOES OFF.

Cutting Wood and the Ax Slipped and Gashed His Foot.

John Fine, a laborer, who lives at 21 Lawns street, was cutting wood at a small station on the Southern road yesterday afternoon when he slipped and cut off several toes. He came to Atlanta last night and was carried at once to his home but the wound was so severe that it was necessary for him to be sent to the Grady hospital.

Paine was in a serious condition last night at 1 o'clock and it was thought that he would not develop.

DENVER ED SMITH HERE.

He Will Give an Exhibition at De-Give-O'Pore House Saturday.

Denver 1 Smith, one of the best known and most popular of the short-haired fraternity, is the city accompanied by Dan Daly.

Along with Denver Ed and Daly came a half dozen good vaudeville people, and on Saturday night the combination, aided by some of the best local talent, will give a turn at the De-Give-O'Pore house. Smith is in pink of condition and is now moving through the south the star of the vaudeville company sing to pass away the time before he sails for Europe, where he will pull off a turkish Peter Jackson.

No less than three complaints were lodged with the Constitution yesterday by ladies whose relatives buried in Oak land cemetery, because of the disappearance of flowers from the graves. "Why," said one of the ladies, "I placed some magnificent flowers on a grave of one I loved and the very day they were gone. I know a lady who had quite a sum invested in flowers, they were stolen within a very short time after they were placed. I wish there were way to stop this."

Thievery Got There.

Montgomery, Ala., April 17.—(Special)—Governor Ross attended the marriage of his niece Miss Cochran, and Bishop Jackson, Eufaula today, through the courtesy the Central railroad which sent a special car. He missed the regular train this morning and would have been deprived of the pleasure of being present on the happy occasion had the road come to his rescue.

THE DAY IN ALABAMA

Two Men Sentenced to Hang for a Brutal Murder.

ONE CONFESSED, THE OTHER DENIED

A Negro Acquitted on a Charge of Criminal Assault—Governor Oakes Goes to a Wedding.

Birmingham, Ala., April 17.—(Special)—In the criminal court yesterday afternoon the jury was given the case of Charles Foster, who was charged with committing a criminal assault upon the person of Mrs. Payne. Mrs. Payne is the wife of a prominent farmer, who lives at Payne's mill, below Bessemer. The jury remained out until 10 o'clock this morning, unable to agree upon a verdict. At 10 o'clock the jury agreed upon the verdict of a mistrial and were discharged.

The negro made a good defense in the way of setting up an alibi, showing by witnesses that he could not have been at the scene of the crime at the hour it was committed. On the other hand, Mrs. Payne positively identified him. This made out a strong case both ways and the jury under the circumstances did about what was expected.

Lee Harris and Abe Mitchell were tried today upon the charge of the murder of Pious Meriwether, the colored grocerman who was so brutally murdered in his store at Eleventh avenue and Twenty-third street. Lee Harris renewed his plea of guilty and made no request for mercy. He seems to take the whole business as a huge joke and to enjoy being the center of attraction.

The Mitchell put in a plea of guilty with some modification. He admitted being present at and consented to the murder, but denied striking the blow or cutting the victim's throat. He, too, took matters very quietly and frequently smiled upon the witnesses, the judge, the jury and the spectators.

The jury was out but a few minutes when a verdict of guilty was returned and the sentence of death was fixed on both men.

He said that 140 men accepted the same rate of 60¢ and 40 cents per ton, and the work mines are still short of fifty men, but it is expected that the laborer will be found in filling the vacant places. The summer rate remains in force until September 1st, when it will be raised 10 cents on the ton.

ALABAMA'S PYTHIANS.

The Grand Lodge Is Busy Working on a New Constitution.

Selma, Ala., April 17.—(Special)—The grand lodge of Alabama Knights of Pythias assembled this morning at 9 o'clock. Grand Vice Chancellor Tennant Lomax, of Montgomery, assumed the chair. Grand Chancellor William Vaughan, of Birmingham, being absent, Mr. Lomax acted as proxy. He appointed vice chancellor to fill the vacancy for this meeting. The entire morning session was consumed in adopting a new constitution for the grand lodge.

An important feature of the meeting, a banquet was tendered the knights at the Hotel Albert last night at 11:30 o'clock.

At a meeting of the uniform rank Knights of Pythias held this morning in the parlors of the Hotel Albert, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: S. J. Round, of Anniston, major; E. E. Jones, of Birmingham, lieutenant; J. W. Posey, of Mobile, major of first battalion.

There will probably be a uniform rank organized in Selma.

In this connection The Register says: "It is well known to the merchants of this city that a business of no considerable proportions has been built up between this city and Central American ports by the introduction of the lines of fruit steamers, which would never have been done otherwise. Their interests are, therefore, to a certain extent identical with those of the fruit importers and the weight of their influence should be thrown with the fruit importers in everything that tends to the building of the fruit trade."

Hood's Sawmill Burned.

Mobile, Ala., April 17.—(Special)—The sawmill of J. R. Hood, at Hood's station, near the state line, was destroyed by fire this morning, together with 60,000 feet of lumber. The fire was discovered about 2 o'clock this morning, and is supposed to have been started by an incendiary. There was no adequate means of fighting the fire and the entire plant, including the sawmill, was destroyed. The loss is said to be between $12,000 and $15,000, with no insurance.

SASSAR'S TROUBLES

He Was Running a Hotel at Macon and Owed Rent.

PART OF THE HOUSE WAS CLOSED

Jeff Johnson, of Pike County, Convicted of Counterfeiting, Sentenced to Nine Years in the Penitentiary.

Macon, April 17.—(Special.)—The account in this morning's Constitution of what seemed to be the attempted suicide of H. Sassar, of Macon, at Jessup on Monday night, was read with considerable interest in this city. There are some very interesting facts connected with the presence of Mr. Sassar at Jessup.

About two months ago Sassar came to Macon from Columbus and rented the Wythe house, on Fourth street, from Dr. J. C. McBurney, which had just been vacated by Ellis. Sassar appeared to be doing very well with the hotel, but on last Saturday evening Mr. McBurney had a part of the hotel closed up on a distress warrant for $100 rent. On Monday morning about 11 o'clock, so the story goes, Sassar left the hotel without telling his wife that he was going. As he did not return during the day or night his wife became greatly alarmed and feared that he had been foully dealt with. The first thing she did was to go to his whereabouts, so it is said, was yesterday morning, when she received a telegram from Jessup saying her husband was very ill there. She at once hastened to his bedside.

Sentenced for Nine Years.

Jesse McCord and Jeff Johnson, white men of Pike county, were tried in the United States court this morning before Judge Speer on the charge of making and passing counterfeit money. McCord and Johnson are brothers-in-law. McCord was first tried and several witnesses testified to his good conduct and character. But Johnson, who was also a witness for the prosecution, testified that McCord once paid him a debt of $5 in counterfeit money, and that McCord had asked him to assist in the making of counterfeit money, and if they were detected to swear the blame on some one else. Johnson's son, however, swore that he had received counterfeit money from his father, and had seen him take lead into a room, lock the door and keep it locked as long as Johnson remained on the inside. It was apparent that Johnson's evidence was perjury and the court said there were good grounds for his prosecution for perjury. District Attorney Gary, on behalf of the government, recommended that McCord be sentenced to five years and Johnson to five years. The court so instructed and McCord was acquitted. McCord and Johnson were then committed to the Georgia State Prison for perjury.

The trial of Johnson was then commenced for counterfeiting. In view of the developments in the McCord hearing Johnson's attorney, Mr. Jones, entered a plea of guilty in behalf of his client. Judge Speer said that inasmuch as Johnson pleaded guilty to counterfeiting, he would not consider the perjury feature of the case. On the charge of counterfeiting Johnson was sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary for nine years and a fine of $100. The next case taken up was that of H. Sassar, who was charged with passing counterfeit money. Sassar was a native of Georgia, of the southern district of Georgia, who was suing the government for several thousand dollars of fees alleged to be due him for services rendered while married to the department at Washington disallowed the claim, hence the suit. The matter came on for a hearing before Judge Speer without a jury.

Macon Bonds Gilt Edge.

Macon 6 per bonds, quarterly coupons, have advanced to $114. The interest on these bonds fell due on April 1st, and was, of course, promptly paid. With coupons attached the bonds were worth $114, but now with coupons detached, they have advanced to $114. This is attributable to the fact that there are so few of these securities to be had, and a gilt-edge investment like a city of Macon bond is in strong demand.

About John T. Waterman.

As is well known the late John T. Waterman was the private secretary of Speaker Crisp at a yearly salary of $2,000. Though Mr. Crisp is no longer speaker Mr. Waterman was still drawing this salary as secretary. When a republican speaker was elected, and of course, a republican secretary, until the convening of the new congress. ## GEORGIA'S NORMAL.

The School for Training Teachers

Opened at Athens.

CAPTAIN S. D. BRADWELL IN CHARGE

He Has a Fine Staff of Assistants—Interesting Exercises—The Exercises to the Pupils Is Small.

Athens, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—Georgia has another institution of learning. The State Normal school was formally opened today at noon at Rock college.

It was an exceedingly inclement day, but quite a number of citizens attended the opening exercises, among others the members of the grand jury of Clarke county, a lady that has twice in the past kept the institution alive by its timely appropriation.

State School Commissioner Glenn presided over the exercises, and called upon Chancellor Boggs, of the University of Georgia, to offer up a prayer. After prayer the audience sang: "My country, 'tis of thee."

Commissioner Glenn then made a brief, but interesting address, in which he stated that the opening of the State Normal school dated a new era in the history of Georgia. He knew the need of such an institution, especially in the rural districts. The great need in the country districts is up-to-date teachers and comfortable houses. The movement of the country people to the cities is to be checked in the future by providing the rural districts advantages which the cities offer. They will then stop leaving the country and the state will be greatly benefited.

Commissioner Glenn hailed the opening of the State Normal school with delight, and predicted that through its work the country districts would be furnished better teachers and, through them, better schools.

Chancellor Boggs made an address, in which he returned thanks to the board of trustees of the university, the city of Athens, and the State Normal school, who had in any way given aid to the normal school in an hour when it needed all the friends it could muster. He dwelt upon the arrangements that have been made at the college building, whereby board and laundry can be furnished for $8 per month, and said that a man or woman who really desired a normal school education ought to be ashamed to let money matters longer prevent them from coming to the State Normal school.

Superintendent W. H. Baker, of the Savannah schools, who is a member of the commission governing the normal school, made a few interesting remarks.

Mr. A. L. Hull, of Athens, a member of the board of trustees of the university and the originator of the resolution of the board to erect a normal school, made a few remarks, in which he pledged the hearty support of the University of Georgia in any possible way.

The location of the school then turned over the keys of the building to President Bradwell, who, in a graceful speech, expressed his appreciation and that of the faculty, and pledged the earnest efforts of the school to make the school a grand success.

After singing "Coronation" the audience was dismissed. The school opens for its regular exercises tomorrow morning, at 9 o'clock, at which time the different classes will be assigned.

THE NUMBER OF STUDENTS TO REGISTER TO-day was forty-three, twenty-one of whom belong to the dormitory.

The large majority of those enrolled are ladies, although quite a number of men will be in attendance. It is believed that fully one hundred teachers will be here before Sunday and the summer term will see the figures go to at least two hundred.

The textbooks have not yet been decided upon, but will be in a few days. The college building has been insured for $50,000, and the commission authorized the president to erect a laundry upon the premises, in order to reduce the expenses of each teacher present to a minimum. The work will begin at once.

THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL has an interesting history. It started in 1891 with an act of the board of trustees of the University of Georgia donating the Rock college building and eight acres of land to the state for normal school purposes. Along with this donation went the Glendon fund of $15,000, which yields $1,600 per annum. This fund is the gift of the late Governor George H. Rains and is to be used only for the training of teachers.

The state accepted the offer and passed an act creating the State Normal school, and authorized the commission, consisting of Messrs. S. D. Bradwell, W. H. Baker, L. E. Evans, A. J. Battle and W. H. Baker, to select a site for the school and to have the building erected there.

The site was selected on the north side of the city of Athens, and the building was erected in 1893 as a place for the instruction of the undergraduates in the normal school. It was long since discontinued in that use and turned over to the state for normal school purposes.

The purposes of the State Normal school are for training teachers and the making of the scholar and the teacher.

There are two classes who come within the purview of the act creating the State Normal school, viz.: Those who are now teachers—men and women who have never had any opportunity to attend a normal school.

Before Dying Moore Tried to Kill T. M. Swails, Who, He Said, Was Responsible for the Shooting.

Waycross, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—Sheriff Dickerson, of Clinch county, was here this morning and told the full particulars of the killing of J. T. Moore yesterday at Dupont. Mr. Moore wanted to buy a stock of groceries from Wylie Booth and the latter would not sell him on credit.

Moore became angry and opened a quarrel. The two men were in the store of Mr. F. Swails. When the quarrel began F. Swails requested them to leave the store, as he did not want any fighting there. The men left the store and were followed by a crowd. Moore knocked Booth down and shot him twice. One of the balls entered Booth's left cheek. Booth died at Moore and killed him.

Moore also fired at T. M. Swails before he was shot, and when he was dying he said that Swails was responsible for the fatal shooting.

Swails was unarmed during the day and no pistol was found in his possession. Swails was arrested and put in jail this afternoon at Homerville by direction of the coroner. Booth has been arrested. An effort is being made to obtain bail for Swails.

DR. PALMER KILLS A MAN.

Joe Reid Attacks Him and the Doctor Shoots.

Seville, Ga., April 17.—(Special.)—Dr. Powell, a physician for the Gress Lumber Company's camps at Kramer, in this county, where "My Lord Beresford" and Harry Hill are imprisoned, shot and killed Mr. Joe Reid, a prominent merchant of Rochelle and a member of the firm of Weeks & Reid. The shooting occurred in front of Reid's store this morning.

The grand jury was recently in session in this county, and took occasion to severely criticize the management of the Gress camps. From the best information The Constitution's correspondent can obtain Dr. Powell made a very unfavorable remark regarding the committee from the grand jury who visited the camp, and as one of Reid's cousins was on the committee, he resented the remark and was choking Dr. Powell when Powell drew his revolver and shot Reid within five minutes. Both men stood well in the community. Powell was arrested.

Friday night Mr. W. L. Collier, marshal of Seville, went to Willford, a neighboring village to serve a warrant on one Joe Douglas, colored, who was employed in a crosscut camp. An altercation ensued in which Douglas was shot, from which he died.

THE COTTON WEBVIL.

An Expert Sent to Texas To Study the Habits of the Insect.

Washington, April 17.—The department of agriculture has sent an additional expert south to investigate the habits of the new pest of cotton, the webvile, which has been reported to Texas from Mexico. Entomologist E. A. Schwarz has gone to San Antonio and other points in Texas to make a study of the insect.

It is a semi-tropical insect and, although it may thrive in the lower corner of Texas, which is semi-tropical in character, it is believed that not many generations can survive the climate in the states north of Texas where cotton is grown. All the United States cotton belt, with the exception of a small region of Texas, forming a point around Brownsville on the Rio Grande, belongs to what is known as the lower austral region, and the habits of insects imported into that region are bound to change from the habits of the same insect when found in the semi-tropical region. These differences caused by the change in climate are to be the special study of the entomologist who has gone south. One thing so far discovered is that the insect cannot fly so far in the climate north of Mexico as it can in the south, and its exertions, it might not be a dangerous pest. The chief cause for alarm, however, arises from the fact that the insect is and has been carried into this country by its own exertions, it might not be a dangerous pest. AT THE KIEL CELEBRATION.

The Finest Fleet Since the Civil War To Represent Us.

Washington, April 17.—The United States is to be represented at the Kiel celebration in Germany by the finest American fleet that has visited European waters since the civil war, headed by the armored cruiser New York, as flagship, and the triple screw battleship Iowa, which will be detached from this purpose from Admiral Meade's fleet when it arrives at Key West next month, with the addition of the San Francisco and Marblehead, now in the Levant for the protection of American interests. Admiral Kirkland, now in charge of the European station, will command the squadron.

The Minneapolis will be fitted up at Norfolk as the flagship of Admiral Meade, during the absence of the New York in Europe, which is expected to be temporary.

Considerable political significance is attached to the order of the New York and Columbia to the North sea and through the new canal into the Baltic, where the last American warship appeared on a mission of mercy, carrying corn, generously contributed in the United States for the starving peasants of Russia. Extremely unusual are the visits of American warships to German ports and the Scandinavian coast, and therefore the Baltic has been practically a sealed sea to them. The completion of the Kiel canal, and the sending of a magnificent fleet to represent the United States, are expected to be productive of increased amicable relations.

A Blizzards Hits Charleston and Truck Farmers Are Alarmed.

Charleston, S. C., April 17.—(Special.)—It is more than probable that the blizzard which hit the South yesterday will do much damage to the truck farmers of this locality who meet another severe loss tomorrow. Most of the farmers had replanted their crops after the blizzard of the 14th, and the crops were getting along nicely. This morning before daylight there was a severe thunder storm, which cleared up into a warm sunnier day about 10 o'clock. At noon a blizzard set in, with the mercury had tumbled from 70 degrees to 48 degrees, and the wind was blowing a gale accompanied by light showers, and the mercury is still falling.

Unless there is a fall in the wind tonight there will be frost tomorrow and the damage to the truck farmers will probably exceed $100,000. The crops affected are strawberries, lettuce, peas, and cucumbers, of which large quantities are shipped to the north at this season.

Guarded by the Police.

Omaha, Neb., April 17.—The boycotted breweries were guarded last night by the police. The brewers' companies have come alarmed over the threatening aspect of the strike and fear that the strikers will interfere with the delivery of beer. The situation is outwardly calm, but a crisis is evidently approaching, and the brewers are very much worried over the affair, as they are threatened by the brewers and the employees. Some of them are refusing to handle the boycotted beer.

A Preacher's Good Luck.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 17.—Rev. E. V. Evans has resigned the pastorate of Trinity Protestant Episcopal church at St. Augustine to go to England, where he has fallen heir to the property and title of his uncle, the late Lord Curbury.

ROBBED IN THE RAIN.

Mr. John S. McKown Was Knocked Senseless Tuesday Night.

Mr. John S. McKown, head clerk of the Central railroad freight office in this city, and well known here, was assaulted Tuesday night in Jonesboro while on his way to his home.

He was knocked insensible with a couple of blows on his head and the two were taken from him and held the umbrella pressed forward to protect him. The robber may have stepped to one side and as the treasurer came even with him dealt him a blow on the back of his head.

The robbery occurred on the main street of the town and only 200 yards away from the store. The weapon used was a coupling pin. It is understood that the man who assaulted was a white man, though Mr. McKown is not able to describe him or to name him.

Whoever the person was it is more than likely that he knew that the money had been taken out of the bank by Mr. McKown or had learned that Mr. McKown was to draw it out Tuesday. The work of the robbery was very cleverly planned and it was raining it was impossible to track him.

UNDER THE HYPNOTIC SPELL.

Professor Everett Performed Some Marvelous Feats Last Night.

Professor Everett bewitched a large audience in the concert hall of the Young Men's Christian Association last night by his feats of hypnotism.

Every one came away from the performance completely mystified and with a profound impression and last night's exhibition felt little short of a sensation.

Among those present were Dr. K. G. Deane and C. M. Pate. One of the features of the exhibition was to put a young man under the influence of the magic spell and make him believe that he was paralyzed in his left arm and hand. He was put in this condition by the use of needles inserted in the young man's arm and he failed to experience the least sensation.

Professor Everett performed a number of marvelous feats. He put several people in the audience to sleep and calling others to the platform placed their movements and will power absolutely under his control. He made them believe, at one time, that they were going up in a balloon and at another that they were taking an ocean voyage. One of the boys was actually made seasick.

the chairman, the keepers, turnkeys and station house captives must go elsewhere for their pie crust.

It is the intention of the chairman to practice rigid economy. He has discovered that during the last regime these eating had thrived and fattened at the expense of the city. There is an interesting story as to how this discovery was made.

The contract for feeding the city prisoners is in the hands of Folsom, the restaurant man. Each day, according to the number of inmates in the police station, meals are sent down to be distributed. They are counted out and distributed by the turnkeys. This food generally consists of hash, muffins, milk and pie.

For each meal there is a charge of 7 cents paid by the city. For years some-of the officers, whose duties require them to remain at the station house, have been in the habit of satisfying their appetites from the platters sent to the prisoners.

Monday and it is clear that the meetings will be of a most successful nature.

Little anteroom and gulp down the dainty viands with keen relish.

So Turner Made a Kick.

Now comes the strange story of the discovery. It is said that everything went well until the advent of W. H. Turner, the newly-elected or rather the newly-appointed station house keeper. It is said the custom of the restaurant man to send a midday meal to Dr. Fouts, who recently resigned to accept the office of justice of the peace. When Dr. Fouts left the meal stopped coming and Officer Turner, who took the place, didn't like such patent discrimination.

So he kicked. He saw the others devouring the delicate repasts and his mouth watered. The news of this unwanted salivary precipitation reached Chairman

Johnson and after an investigation he discovered that from the five extra meals devoured daily the city was losing $5 a day, amounting to an annual loss of $1750.

Thus it was that he consulted with Chief

Connelley yesterday morning and ordered that the supply be cut to suit the demands of the prisoners alone.

This reduction of the supply of pie crust will be reported at the next meeting of the board of police commissioners. The action will be warmly debated and may bring about a strong deadlock.

THAT REDUCTION. HALF A HUNDRED. NOT AN ELEPHANT.

Mr. L. B. Nelson, Foreman of the Grand Jury, Gives Some Facts. SHOWS THERE ARE DISCRIMINATIONS

Refers to Comptroller Wright's Interview as a Grand Stand Play-It Is a Matter of Interest.

Mr. L. B. Nelson, foreman of the grand jury which recommended the reduced valuation of city property in county returns, has a word to say regarding the rejection of the suggestions made by the grand jury to Tax Receiver Armistead.

It is a matter of fact, as the tax books show, that the larger properties are returned at from 10 to 40 per cent of the city valuation, while the smaller real estate owners give in their property at the same figure as those that appear in the city tax books as placed there by the city assessors.

The action of the grand jury in asking that 33 1/3 per cent be taken off the city valuation was the result of a thorough discussion of the matter. The gentlemen on the grand jury are all well-known and prominent business men of the city. They thought it was their duty to make the special presentment and did so, afterwards appointing a committee of five to call upon the tax receiver and hand him a copy of the presentments.

The tax receiver said that he could not act under the suggestions of the grand jury as he was bound by the law on the subject. In this he was sustained by Comptroller Wright, who did not mince words to which Foreman L. B. Nelson takes exception, too, in very straightforward words. In his interview Mr. Nelson gives the situation as it appears and tells why the action of the grand jury was taken. It is an interesting and timely interview and expresses the sentiments of many taxpayers.

The Status of Assessments. "There seems a disposition," said Mr. L. B. Nelson, "to make a difficult problem of the grand jury's effort to secure a uniform valuation of the property upon which our citizens pay taxes. Every man of ordinary intelligence knows that the people of Fulton county do not own one-seventh of the property of the state, and yet we pay about one-seventh of the state tax. Those who have given the matter any thought know that there is great inequality between the values given in by individuals. Large property owners give more care to keeping their taxable values down than small ones. Estimating the worth and value is entirely a matter of opinion. Large owners give in their property on a basis varying from the city assessment of 10, 20, 30 and even 40 per cent off from said valuation. Smaller property owners, having less tax to pay, but often more difficulty in paying, and whose property comes nearer being taxed at its full value, generally give in their property at the city assessed value. Thus the poor man is the sufferer. In other states these inequalities are recognized and by proper legislation provided for. In this state, a township board equalizes values between the townships of a county, and a county board equalizes values between the counties of a state. It is simply a matter of judgment, and an effort is made in every possible way to make these varying opinions as nearly equal and just as possible.

"Lacking any other correctives here the grand jury saw fit to recommend a basis which they thought might give the man of less means in our midst an equality footing with his more fortunate neighbor, and put us all nearer on an equality with the state at large. They may not hold up the law, insist upon its technicalities, and do great injustice. It is also easy to observe good common sense in its construction and under being so technical, do greater justice.

"The big value placed upon property by our city assessors is no injustice to our people if their judgment gives a uniform value, because the city tax raised, and its assessment is its own. Recognizing the depression that is upon us, and how difficult it is for many of our citizens to pay their taxes at all and save their homes, the grand jury made an effort to suggest a basis which they believed would give the same equality in our state and county taxes.

It Was Simply a Suggestion. "We never presumed to do more than make a suggestion. The insistence upon a literal observation of the technicalities of the law seems likely to prevent our efforts accomplishing any good for those we represent.

"Perhaps parties giving in their taxes might accomplish the end sought by agreeing on the true worth for this taxation as being a uniform 33 1/3 per cent off from the city assessment. Then we would all stand on the same footing. The taxable values of the city of Atlanta are fixed by the city assessors. The value fixed by most of the balance of the state is that placed by the owners themselves. It does not strike me as quite the fair thing for the comptroller general or our tax receiver to insist upon our paying the same rate of taxation on a value fixed by a board of assessors as the balance of the state pay on a value fixed by the owners of the property.

A Roast for the Comptroller. "The grand jurors are grateful to Comptroller General Wright for his volunteered advice in The Journal of Tuesday, and his intimation of their lack of common sense as simply an opinion. We recognize that the grand stand he plays to is not located in the counties which pay the taxes."

HARMONY CLUB TONIGHT. A Delightful Programme of Music Has Been Arranged.

That Number of Grand Opera Singers Swoop Down Upon Atlanta. THE CAMPOBELLO COMPANY IS HERE

Hard Work at Rehearsals from Now Until Monday, When the Season Opens. The Salsa Band This Week.

A half hundred grand opera artists swooped down upon Atlanta yesterday afternoon and for a month they will make Atlanta their homes.

When the Southern vestibule rolled into the depot yesterday afternoon there was quite a crowd present to welcome Campobello and his artists. They came through in a special car and when that car had given forth its freight, it was as if the towers of Babel had been transferred to Atlanta.

There were Italians and Spaniards, Cubans and French, men and women, natives of England and natives of America—all jabbering and chattering together. Signor Campobello, the impresario, was the central figure in that medley. The signor was having his troubles. He had been talking "sunny south" to his people—had told the Italians how much like sunny Italy they would find Atlanta—and they were calling him down.

The signor smiled and soon found half a dozen patriotic Atlantians to swear that such a cold snap had never before been known; then he piloted the stars to the Kimball and the other members went to the Markham.

"We had an exceedingly pleasant trip down," said general Montegriffo, the leading tenor of the company. "It was a little chilly, true, but the run was a fast one and we were well taken care of."

Montegriffo's last visit to Atlanta was with Emma Abbott, when honest little Emma last sang here. Since then Monte has been in Europe most of the time. In Italy he was made a chevalier, but he is too much of a democrat to use the title.

"The coming of Sousa and his peerless concert band is an event of the present musical season that will arouse great enthusiasm. Sousa draws his admirers from all classes in whom the love of music finds its home. The classical mind of Sousa is admired because he interprets in a masterly way and with fidelity of purpose the works of the masters. To the mind of the casual listener, Sousa is the rock of Plymouth, and because he appeals to the general intelligence and to the popular mind, Sousa is a name of fame and honor."

"No year passes but the values of individuals, townships and counties are changed. Some are reduced, others increased, and yet no locality is charged with 'assuming to itself all the honesty and fairness of the state,' or with possessing the right to relieve itself at the expense of others. It is simply a matter of judgment, and an effort is made in every possible way to make these varying opinions as nearly equal and just as possible.

"Lacking any other correctives here the grand jury saw fit to recommend a basis which they thought might give the man of less means in our midst an equality footing with his more fortunate neighbor, and put us all nearer on an equality with the state at large. They may not hold up the law, insist upon its technicalities, and do great injustice. It is also easy to observe good common sense in its construction and under being so technical, do greater justice.

AN ORGAN RECITAL. Mr. Charles P. Garratt Will Appear at the First Methodist Church.

This evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Charles P. Garratt will give an organ recital at the First Methodist Episcopal church, the music committee of the church choir consisting of Miss Elizabeth Kinney, soprano; Mrs. Charles Sheridan, alto; Mr. Walter Harrison, tenor, and Mr. E. H. Bues, basso.

Mr. Oliver, recently of Knoxville, Tenn., will also render a violin solo.

Mr. Garratt has a large reputation as an organist. He has been an accomplished violinist and the choir of the First Methodist is second to none in the South.

GOING FISHING. Parties at Cumberland and Splendid Times and Great Sport.

A friend of Mr. Shackelford in this city received a telegram from him yesterday stating that fishing on Cumberland Island was all that could be desired. Large quantities of drum are being caught.

Governor Atkinson Doesn't So Regard the Northeastern Road. HE TALKS ABOUT THE PURCHASE

The Bonds Are To Be Sold—Some Interesting Figures—Other News at the State Capitol.

"No, indeed. I'm not like the man in 'Wang' with an elephant on his hands, and you may put me down as resorting that insinuation," was Governor Atkinson's reply to an allusion to the purchase of the Northeastern.

Then he explained his purposes concerning the road.

"The road will be operated just as it has been under Colonel Reaves' special agent until the legislature meets. It is, of course, for that body to make any provisions for the future which it may deem best. The road has more than paid the interest on the amount of the state's investment since it has been operated by the state, and I am confident of its ability to continue doing so. I have made a close study of its condition, and the state of its finances under the management of the state's agent, and I am confident that it will pay more than the 3 1/2 per cent interest which the new bonds will bear."

"The failure to find an outside purchaser for the road means that the bonds provided for by the legislature will be issued. The advertisement provides that offers for the bonds must be made by April 1st. Had the road been sold to an outside party for as much as the amount of the state's liability on the old Northeastern bonds this would not have been necessary. Had the road been sold to an outside party, the amount of the state's liability on the old Northeastern bonds would have been paid off with the amount so received. As it is, however, the amount received for the new bonds will pay off these Northeastern bonds, and the interest will be cut down from 7 per cent to 3 1/2."

Some Insurance Figures. Mr. R. P. Shelden, general agent for the Mutual Life of New York, has called the attention of Comptroller Wright to a number of the recently published figures showing the amounts invested by insurance companies in Georgia securities or Georgia real estate.

The figures which Mr. Shelden submits show that the Mutual has made much larger investments in Georgia than has any other company. The original figures credited that company with less than $2,000,000 of such investment, while Mr. Shelden shows it is considerably more than twice that amount.

The company has in Georgia bonds, $1,000,000; in Chatham county and Savannah bonds, $600,000; in Atlanta bonds, $250,000; in Augusta bonds, $125,000; in the bonds of the Georgia railroad, $2,850,000, which makes a total of $4,725,000.

In addition to this, the Mutual Life has a great deal of money loaned on Georgia real estate through a mortgage company which it owns and controls.

"The figures submitted by Comptroller General Wright," said the governor, "referring to the entire table as printed by The Constitution a few days ago, 'show two things very conclusively. One of these is that we should encourage the establishment of home insurance companies as practically the money they handle is invested here at home. The other is that the companies which do invest in Georgia find it profitable and that the state is benefited by the investment of the money they handle in Georgia. There is no charter provision to prevent any of the companies investing in Georgia, so it is a fact that those which go elsewhere for investment to the exclusion of Georgia do so simply through the profligacy of the men who manage their affairs. Other sections are favored by them to the exclusion of this state.'"

For a Naval Militia. Governor Atkinson, today for Washington. While there he will confer with the secretary of the navy and will request that some of the ships of the navy, the Atlantic preferred, be sent to Brunswick this summer for instruction in giving the naval militia an opportunity for drill and instruction.

If he succeeds he will doubtless be doing an excellent thing for Brunswick, aside from the immediate benefit to the volunteer sailors. Excursions will be run to Brunswick and it will be made a gala occasion.

After Thirteen Years. In 1882 a man named William Turner, then living at Anderson, S. C., fraudulently sold two bales of cotton belonging to H. H. Prince & Co., and appropriated the proceeds.

Yesterday Governor Atkinson issued an order the effect of which would probably send Turner back to South Carolina for trial on that charge.

Turner is under arrest in Morgan county. He was apprehended on a farm five miles from Social Circle. The governor's order is that the sheriff hold him for twenty days to enable the governor of South Carolina to make requisition for him if he so desires.

The affidavit upon which the paper was issued was made by S. B. Townes, who says he knows Turner, who has, since 1882, been a fugitive.

with a factory, the world is giving a prestige. Mr. Boyd has been in the saw mill men of the world, making the superiority of his mill. Mr. Boyd, who is a large manufacturer of yellow pine lumber, at Stillmore, Ga., in writing to the Southern saw works, says: "The four 16-inch, 6-gauge L. H. 80-tooth saws we received from you in January, are the best saws we have ever had in this mill. No saws could exceed them in fact, they are perfect; the material and workmanship leaves nothing to be desired. During the three months that we have had these saws there has not been a single instance of the saws breaking, which proved conclusively the superior quality of the steel used in their manufacture. This mill is a single circular, with an average cut of 60,000 feet per day, and we have cut one hundred and forty-four thousand one hundred and thirty (144,130) feet in one day of eleven hours with a pair of your saws. We feed very heavy, from eight to ten inches at all times, and none but the very best of saws can stand up to this feed or produce the above average cut, and make good lumber. Your saws do it perfectly and give the best of satisfaction. We have tried other saws, but have failed in this respect. Several mill men in this vicinity report the same satisfactory results. The superiority of your saws over the liberal percentage of the southern lumbermen, as they cannot procure better saws anywhere, is a very real thing. Having used your edger saw teeth, and find them as good as the Hoe."

This is a sample of many that Mr. Boyd has and the people of Atlanta will be glad to know that an institution of this character is being founded. The hope of the south is diversified manufacturing industries, and Mr. Boyd, living up to his convictions, is doing all that he can to place the south in the front rank in this special line.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

Easter Tide Brings Many Weddings Throughout the State.

TWO PRETTY ONES IN THE CITY

Miss Rosch and Mr. Spear and Miss Cree and Mr. Stratton are married—Gossip About People You Know.

Last evening witnessed one of the happiest and most beautiful wedding ceremonies that has occurred in Atlanta in many months. The bride was Miss Maud Rosch, the groom Mr. Moreland Spear.

The wedding occurred at the bride's home on Whitehall street and was a quiet affair, only the relatives of the young contracting parties being present, and a few intimate friends.

The service was read by Rev. Dr. Barnett, of the First Presbyterian church. At half-past 6 o'clock the bride and groom, the bridesmaids, the groomsmen, the flower girls, and the ring bearers, all in white, entered the drawing rooms, which were artistically decorated with the palms and greenhouse plants, and standing before a pyramid of flowers and foliage were made husband and wife.

There were no attendants and no effort at ostentation for the young couple starting out in life together immediately after the nuptials for a wedding journey, and the bride wore a wedding gown of fine brown cloth, with a carmine and immensely becoming to her brunette type. Of a pronounced attractiveness naturally, the occasion with its novelty and excitement enhanced her beauty tenfold and Miss Rosch looked unusually pretty.

She wore two ornaments—a star and one a crescent—of beautiful diamonds that were gifts from the groom and his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Spear have gone to New York, Pennsylvania and other northern states for a five or six weeks' tour, after which they will be at home to their friends at the home of the groom's mother on Peachtree street.

Miss Spear is a daughter of the late Dr. Rosch and is a young lady of a family identified with the progress and upbuilding of Atlanta. She is bright, attractive and has a charming personality.

Mr. Spear is a son of the late Colonel Dan Spear and is a young man of a character and business ability. He and his bride have the best wishes of a great many interested friends.

There seems to be a bright prospect for Atlanta's witnessing the most splendid floral pageant ever seen in the south. If the plans of the Atlanta exposition, which president of the woman's board, succeed, the carnival will be beautiful. She proposes to have the day a grand fête, upon which occasion all business will be suspended and the town will be given over to pleasure and the gods of love, music and flowers.

Along Peachtree street and Ponce de Leon avenue arches of freshly cut, fragrant flowers will be erected, beneath which the carriages will pass. The carriages and vehicles of all kinds will be gayly bedight with streamers and flowers and beautiful women in airy summer frocks will be in the procession. The procession will be headed by Governor Atkinson in an elegantly decorated carriage. Next will come Hon. Porter King. The aldermen and council will follow, and the rest of the townsmen and their board of lady managers of the Cotton States and International exposition. A band will follow, then several magnificent floats, representing Love, Music, Flora and other appropriate subjects. The floats will be followed by hundreds of bicycle riders, dressed in the national colors, and then all private carriages in the city are invited to a private parade. The entire procession will be headed by twenty-eight outriders, who will be sixteen young ladies and sixteen young gentlemen, dressed in the national colors, with wreaths of red roses, white roses and violets wreathing the necks of their steeds.

After the street parade a bicycle race will occur at the park, and a beautiful maypole dance will be enjoyed. Prizes will be contested for and the affair will be very elaborate.

Atlanta held a floral festival several years ago, which was a pretty show, and everybody owning a flower, white rose or hyacinth should decorate it with flowers, either cultivated or wild, and lend their assistance and presence to the show. Mrs. Lanier is a woman of great executive ability, and she is fully capable of managing such a carnival, if the people will encourage her.

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Saunders, at 15 Highland avenue, was the scene last night of a beautiful home wedding, which united Miss Elizabeth Cree and Mr. Thomas M. Stratton. The ceremony occurred at 8 o'clock and was performed by Bishop Nelson in an impressive manner. A number of friends of the couple were present.

The Atlanta Rifles, of which Mr. Stratton is a member, were in uniform, headed by Captain Joseph Van Holt Nash. The ceremony was performed in the beautiful parlor, which was decorated in palms and ferns for the occasion. The attendants were Miss Mary Johnston, of Boston; Miss Nellie Wood, Miss Cree, and Messrs. Holloway, Howard and Adamson. Little Ethel Kelly and Little Bessie Saunders were the flower girls. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Arthur Cree. After the ceremony refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Stratton entertained the wedding party in their usual happy and hospitable manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Stratton have resided in Atlanta only a few years, but are very well known in the city. Mr. Stratton's home is in Nashville, where he is extremely popular. Miss Cree resided in Detroit, Mich., until a few years ago, when she came to Atlanta to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Saunders.

Mrs. Frank Weldon has returned from a visit to Savannah and St. Augustine. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thomas are at home again, after a trip to Florida. Mrs. George Porter will probably open "Hill Top," her beautiful summer home, overlooking the Suque river, at Clarksville, this summer. The home is built upon a tall hill and has the most romantic of surroundings. In sight is the famous cotton mill owned by Mr. Porter and Mr. Robinson, and the charming little village of factory homes nestles at the bend of the river. Yonah mountain and the Nacoochee valley are near by and lend additional charm to the spot.

Mrs. Charlotte Peck and her little granddaughter Lottie Wyly, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Ellis at Macon.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Morris Brandon gave a delightful "game" party complimentary to Miss Lucy Inman. There were about thirty-five guests. The ladies' prizes were as follows: First prize, Miss Robie Lowe; second, Miss Caro Hildt; third, Mrs. Walter Cooper; fourth, Miss Julia Clarke. Gentlemen's prizes—First, Mr. Cooper; second, Mr. Julius Hayden; third, Mr. Frank Block; fourth, Mr. Levy Arnold. Miss Inman received a complimentary prize. The souvenirs were all handsome, and made of silver. Miss Inman looked unusually beautiful in a gown of pale rose colored silk and chiffon.

Miss Nellie Flynn and Mr. John Rice, of Washington, D. C., were married at the Catholic church at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The ceremony was beautifully performed by Father Kelly.

Mrs. Henry H. Smith will leave the city Saturday for New York, where she goes to visit Mrs. Jessie Branham Appleton, of that city.

Miss Annie Flittin will entertain the North Side Whist Club with a card party and dance Friday evening of next week.

The Edmund Russell readings begin at 7 o'clock this afternoon. A great deal of interest is manifested in these art talks.

Mrs. Charles Hume Arnold is at home again after a two weeks' absence in Rome. While there Mrs. Arnold and her sister, Miss Emma Pope, who has been her guest in Atlanta, were the recipients of several graceful social entertainments. Miss Pope has returned to her home in Kentucky.

The ladies of the Virginia committee of the Cotton States and International exposition, will give a lovely reception tonight at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Morgan, 189 Spring street, beginning at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Morgan is a delightful hostess and the reception tonight will be one of rare enjoyment to all who attend. Mrs. W. L. Peel, the colonial chairman, has labored zealously in behalf of her department and deserves to be congratulated on the good work that has been accomplished.

Mrs. Dr. E. L. Connally has as her guest Mrs. Minnie Iverson Randolph, of Florida.

Among the graceful little dancers preparing for the closing exercises of Miss Gipsy Morgan's school, the classes are Laura Payne, Harry Stockell, Clara Patterson, Bessie Taylor and Maitland Marshall.

A very novel and interesting club has been organized on the south side, which admits to membership only young writers of talent. The club is conducted after the manner of "The Pegasus" club of Philadelphia, which was organized by Mr. J. C. Morgan, 189 Spring street, beginning at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Morgan is a delightful hostess and the reception tonight will be one of rare enjoyment to all who attend. Mrs. W. L. Peel, the colonial chairman, has labored zealously in behalf of her department and deserves to be congratulated on the good work that has been accomplished.

Mrs. Sam Inman is expected home from Raleigh, N. C., the last of this week, where she has been in attendance upon her mother, who has been very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Traylor have a beautiful little girl at their home, who is as yet unnamed.

NO CASE AGAINST COX

When Called by Justice Landrum There Was No Prosecutor Present.

HARRIS ARRESTED AND LOOKED UP

A Large Crowd Was at the Magistrate's Court to Hear the Testimony, but It Was Disappointed.

The crowd that pushed itself into the corridor and rooms adjoining the ballroom of Justice Landrum yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the case against Mr. John W. Cox was set for preliminary hearing, showed the intense interest that the encounter of the day before had excited. People mounted chairs, tables, windows, fought for seats, shoved, elbowed and mashed each other in eager rivalry to get as near as possible to the stand behind which the justice sat. The negro element was there in abundance, and those who could not struggle inside lined themselves up patiently on the sidewalk and showed in many ways their interest and expectant curiosity.

After some consultation the warrant against Mr. Cox was dismissed in the absence of the officer who took it out the afternoon before and Cox became thereby the prosecutor.

Immediately after the decision, a warrant was sworn out against the negro, John Harris, by Mr. Cox, and it will receive a hearing upon the call of Judge Landrum, who will wait upon the attorneys interested in the case.

There was some misunderstanding as to the place where the case was to be heard, and, many thinking that it would come up before Judge Orr, gathered there as early as 2:30 o'clock. The crowd at Judge Orr's court was even larger than that assembled before the chambers of Judge Landrum, and at one time it became so disorderly that police authority was necessary to quell it. The friends of Mr. Cox were in force, but for the most part the crowd was made up of men who were waiting for the explosion of a huge sensation.

It had been decided by the court to vent the affair before Judge Landrum.

John Harris Brought In.
At 4:45 o'clock John Harris, the negro with whom the duel was fought, was brought up from the station house by Officer Reed.

Harris is not a bad-looking negro. He is about twenty-one years old, light mulatto color and wears a feathery mustache which he is in the habit of pulling continually. As he walked up Deatur street the negroes looked at him with a lo-the-conquering-hero-comes expression on each countenance.

Harris was a hero, indeed, to them and they ran over each other to catch sight of him. Harris was dressed in a neat-fitting gray tailor-made suit and wore pointed tan shoes. He had left his tie in the cell at the station house, but a diamond pin flashed out from his shirt front. A bandage of white cloth was about his head, placed there by the doctor to heal up the deep wound made by the lawyer's poker. His hat, which was left in Mr. Cox's office, had not been returned to him and in its place a dingy-looking alpaca was pulled over one eye.

Harris is a lordly swell among the elite of colored aristocracy and cuts a wide swath. The crowd about the courtroom made way for him to pass, and led by the officer he took his seat on the right of Judge Landrum.

Mr. Cox Was There.
Mr. John Cox, accompanied by several friends and his attorney, Colonel Albert Cox, was already in the room. He was cool in manner, but his face was flushed. Mr. Cox announced through his attorney that he was ready and Judge Landrum said that he was also prepared to go into the case.

"Wait a minute, your honor," put in Harris. "I haven't any lawyer here, and don't want this case to go on until he comes."

"Who is your lawyer?" asked the justice.

"Colonel Hulse, sir. I have sent for him but he hasn't come. I am looking for him every minute."

The judge said that he would agree to wait for a short while.

A Sympathetic Volunteer.

Some time passed and the judge said that he was forced to proceed with the hearing. Harris insisted that it should not be heard until the appearance of his lawyer.

"I've already sent for him," he added, "and tell him that I want him here to go with me."

"I'll go, and I'll go for nothing," cried a sympathetic dandy from the rear of the room. Before he could do the mission, however, Colonel Hulse made his appearance and the court was called to order.

"What are you going to do in this case?" asked the judge of the lawyer as he entered.

"Oh, I haven't anything to do with this case against Cox," said Colonel Hulse. "In the first place I haven't consulted this client

SUBURBAN TRAINS.

The Southern Railway Will Run Them Into and Out of Town.

WILL USE THE MITCHELL STREET DEPOT

Work of Repairing the Depot Has Already Begun—Other News and Gossip of the Railroads.

The Southern railway has determined to run dozens of suburban trains into and out of Atlanta on double daily schedules, during the exposition.

These trains will operate from the old East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia passenger depot, out at the Mitchell street crossing, and not from the union passenger depot at Mitchell street.

The old depot at Mitchell street is being handsomely repaired and renovated and will be made a very convenient place for the use of the railroad for such a purpose.

The Southern will have suburban trains on both sections of the old East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia branch. The train from the northern section of the East Tennessee will be scheduled to arrive in Atlanta much earlier in the day, and will depart late in the afternoon. This train will run between Tallapoosa and Atlanta.

All of these suburban trains will land their passengers at the new passenger depot at the Mitchell street crossing. Virginia and Georgia but has not been used as a passenger depot since the new depot at the Mitchell street crossing was built several years ago. Since that time it has been used by the Atlanta and Georgia railroad.

Workers are now busy with the repairs that are being made on the depot. It will be a handsome and convenient structure by the time it is ready for use, and will in every way serve the purpose of the Southern in its suburban schedule.

"It will be impossible for us to run all our trains into the crowded union passenger depot," said Mr. W. H. Baldwin, third vice president of the Southern, to The Constitution yesterday. "and for some reason it hung fire. Next came the strike brought on by the kick that was made by the holders of the Savannah and Western who did not approve the plans of the reorganization committee of the Central. It is claimed by them that they have sufficient holdings to prevent the culmination of the plan of the Central people, but the more recent claim on the part of the Georgia Central reorganizers is to the effect that they can get along with their scheme whether the Savannah and Western is with them or against them."

THE CENTRAL'S REORGANIZATION.
The Scheme Can Be Worked Without the Savannah and Western.
Reports from New York yesterday stated that the promoters of the plans of reorganization of the Central of Georgia declare that the scheme for the redemption of the road can now be carried through, with or without the Savannah and Western.

It is known that the Georgia Central reorganization plan was published quite a long time ago, and that for some reason it hung fire. Next came the strike brought on by the kick that was made by the holders of the Savannah and Western who did not approve the plans of the reorganization committee of the Central. It is claimed by them that they have sufficient holdings to prevent the culmination of the plan of the Central people, but the more recent claim on the part of the Georgia Central reorganizers is to the effect that they can get along with their scheme whether the Savannah and Western is with them or against them."

THE EXPOSITION TERMINALS.
The plans for the completion of the exposition terminals have not yet been decided upon by the Southern railway officials, but it is thought that the drawings will be made within the next few days and that the work will be taken up at once.

It is known that the Southern will have a double track all the way to the exposition gates, and that trains will run every five minutes, each train having a capacity of seven hundred passengers.

The idea of the Southern railway in making these changes—all of which were first definitely made known by The Constitution yesterday—is to centralize the powers of the great system, and to have a single authority in Atlanta, with two general managers, one for the city and one for the country, and the work is now strictly departmental.

Mr. Thompson is one of the best known railroad men in the country, and having resided in this city before, has a host of friends here.

TO PASS THE DIVIDEND.
The Baltimore and Ohio Directors To Pass the Common Stock Dividend.
Baltimore, Md., April 17.—The board of directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, decided by a unanimous vote today, to pass the common stock dividend. This decision was reached after a long meeting of the finance committee, which began yesterday at noon and continued until 10 o'clock today.

A strenuous effort was made by those who were anxious to keep the Baltimore and Ohio company in the dividend-paying list, but they were outvoted by the ultra conservatives.

The directors declared the customary dividend of 5 per cent on the stock of the Washington branch.

MR. HUNT'S IDEAS

As to What the Crops in the State Will Be Before the Harvest Is Here.

TELLS WHAT THE FARMERS ARE DOING

And Shows That There Is Every Reason to Think That the Season Will Be a Good One, and Crops Heavy.

Mr. George E. Hunt, local forecast official, has just issued bulletin No. 2 of the Georgia weather service. It reads: "Except for a slight interruption on account of the general and heavy rains of the 11th, the farmers of Georgia have never known a week of more favorable weather for farming operations, but the temperature has continued low, for the season, and the weather has been very favorable in all portions of the state, and the cool nights have retarded germination and growth. The bulk of the corn crop is in the ground and in some sections it is up to a stand and is being worked. Cotton is beginning to be planted in the northern and central sections. Some of the fields planted in the latter section are already coming up. The coming week will be devoted to cotton planting, and should the weather continue favorable, but a small acreage will remain unplanted by the time of issue of the next bulletin. Wheat fields show improvement, but the fall oat crop is a failure. Fruit prospects continue excellent, peaches and pears being especially promising, and in anticipation of many a large harvest is assured, the foliage having attained sufficient growth to protect the fruit should ordinary frosts occur.

"In the northwest section the past week has been quite favorable to crops and farming operations. The temperature was rather low and the working of the ground was delayed the first part of the week on account of the heavy rain on the 7th instant. Showers fell the night of the 10th, and the ground was improved. A light frost was noticed the morning of the 12th, but all agree that no damage resulted. Corn planting so far has been confined mainly to the uplands and this is up and doing well. Some report no cotton planted in other localities, but a small acreage will remain unplanted by the time of issue of the next bulletin. Wheat fields show improvement, but the fall oat crop is a failure. Fruit prospects continue excellent, peaches and pears being especially promising, and in anticipation of many a large harvest is assured, the foliage having attained sufficient growth to protect the fruit should ordinary frosts occur.

"For the farmers of northeastern Georgia the past week has been a busy one. With pleasant weather prevailing, farming operations have been pushed rapidly forward. Cotton planting was begun in many localities, but is as yet not far advanced. The weather, although favorable for farm work, has been too cold for the rapid germination of such seed as has been sown. Light frosts occurred on the morning of the 12th, but fortunately neither fruit nor vegetables were injured. The outlook for a good tobacco crop is very promising.

"Reports from the west section state that the week has been a fine one for growing crops, but a little cool weather has been pushing rapidly forward. Cotton planting was begun in many localities, but is as yet not far advanced. The weather, although favorable for farm work, has been too cold for the rapid germination of such seed as has been sown. Light frosts occurred on the morning of the 12th, but fortunately neither fruit nor vegetables were injured. The outlook for a good tobacco crop is very promising.

"In the central section, conditions are very promising. The plants have taken advantage of the good weather of the past week and have been working from 'sun to sun,' getting their land ready and planting in the low wet lands. Upland corn is up and generally to a good stand. Vegetables are all in good condition, and are well and growing nicely. The ground has been a little too wet and the nights too cool for melons to come up. Small grains in some localities look poor, and the crop will be light. The fruit crop is safe up to date. It is not thought that peaches were in any way affected by the light frosts of the 12th.

"With the sunny but rather cool weather farming operations have moved with a rush during the past seven days in the eastern counties. A large portion of the corn crop has already been planted and some of the early planting is above ground. In some portions of the southwest section showers fell on the 13th, but generally no rain has fallen during the week. Gardens are all in good condition, all planted; most of it up and some being worked. Most of the cotton is in the ground and some of it is coming up. Generally cotton and corn are not looking very well. The cane stubble was all killed, but the cane seed is up and in good condition. Oats are good. Watermelons are germinating and growing slowly. Peaches are being planted. Insects are injuring the tobacco buds. A fine fruit prospect still continues.

"Good reports continue to come in from the southern portion of the state. The past week has been all that the farmer could desire, and a double effort has been made to make up for lost time. Corn, cotton, cane and potatoes are all planted, and that which is up is doing fine. The stands of corn, though, are reported as only fair. The ground is getting somewhat dry, and rain will be needed shortly for young corn and cotton. Garden vegetables are coming up, and have a healthy appearance. Watermelon vines are beginning to appear above ground. Fruit crop continues fine.

"Although the season is still very backward in the southeast section, everything shows improvement since the last report. Cotton planting is progressing, and some fields up, but the cool nights were rather injurious, and the growth of both cotton and corn is slow. As a result of the cool nights cut worms are also injuring the crops in some localities. Upland corn is up and generally looking well. Truck farming is beginning to take the place of cotton and rice to considerable extent, and gardens, though late, look well. Fruit prospects are most encouraging, especially for peaches and pears.
